

January 22, 2010

Hello Families,

This week...

During Writing, the students learned to write about "small moments". Ask your child what a small moment is.

During Math, the students learned to record arrangements of a certain quantity and they used a ten frame to develop visual images of quantities up to 10.

The students attended this week's school meeting.

Ms. Roth's second graders visited us. They read their finished stories to the Kindergartners, in order to, practice their reading skills.

Mr. Steve taught us all about Balls and Ramps. This PTO enrichment program launches our exciting unit of Balls and Ramps.

For our Folktale unit, they finished their own Little Red Hen books. we have read many Three Little Pig books. The students have compared and contrasted all the versions.

During Handwriting, the students are practicing the correct formation of the lowercase letters c, o and a.

We visited our Book Buddies to read their finished Little Red Hen books.

Next week...

Early Release on Wednesday, January 27th.

PAJAMA DAY is also on January 27th. Your children may wear pajamas to school!

Thank you to...

Mrs. Cushing for volunteering in the classroom.

Mrs. Folz, Mrs. Hochberg and Mrs. Haarde for setting up our new drama area- ICE CASTLE!

all the parents who let us borrow many Three Little Pig books.

Have a wonderful weekend!

Jennifer Faber
Kindergarten Teacher
Nixon School
978-443-1080 Ext. 4215