Thank you so much to all the students and parents of my class this year. It has been such a wonderful year, and I am genuinely sad to see it end. I wish you a happy and safe summer vacation and the best of luck at Curtis!

For most of the summer I will be teaching at my former school in Marlborough, and I will also be tutoring. My husband, Jaiden, and I will take a long weekend trip to StoryLand, in New Hampshire again, and we will spend most weekends at home in our pool.

I am looking forward to meeting my new fifth graders in September. I can only hope that next year's class is as fantastic as this one has been! Thanks for a great year!
